

BEFORE THE UNITED STATES JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

In re: Digital Advertising Antitrust Litigation

MDL No. 3010

GOOGLE DEFENDANTS' SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR TRANSFER AND CENTRALIZATION PURSUANT TO 28 U.S.C. § 1407

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, counsel for Defendants Google LLC, Alphabet Inc., and YouTube, LLC (together, “Google”) provide notice of supplemental information regarding a bill entitled the State Antitrust Enforcement Venue Act of 2021 (H.R. 3460, S. 1787). The Plaintiff States have argued that the pendency of this bill should influence the Panel’s resolution of Google’s motion for centralization. On July 22, 2021, five of the Plaintiff States filed a Supplemental Information attaching materials related to the bill, including a June 18, 2021 letter to House Leadership from the National Association of Attorneys General. (Dkt. 104). The Administrative Office of the United States Courts (“AOUSC”) also has submitted a letter to House Leadership concerning the bill, which Google attaches as Exhibit A.

In its letter, the AOUSC explains “[n]either the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (“Panel”) nor any of the relevant committees of the Judicial Conference of the United States (“Conference”) have had the opportunity to analyze this bill thoroughly,” and offers a number of initial observations on the bill. Those observations include that: “H.R. 3460 May Negatively Impact the Efficiency and Conduct of Antitrust MDLs”; “H.R. 3460 May Result in Inefficient Judicial Administration of Antitrust Litigation”; “H.R. 3460 Could Adversely Affect the Interest of States”; and “H.R. 3460 Could Undermine the Panel’s Efforts to Enhance Coordination with Federal Antitrust Litigation.”

Dated: July 26, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Justina K. Sessions
