Attorneys for Plaintiff Secretary of Labor

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

INTRODUCTION

1 The Secretary brings this action to secure unpaid wages and damages for 2 employees who work long hours delivering automotive and truck parts through-3 out Arizona. Although these workers are essential to Defendants' business opera-4 tions and are not in business for themselves, Defendants treat their employees as 5 "independent contractors" who are not entitled to the wages and protections guar-6 anteed by the Fair Labor Standards Act. Through this misclassification, Defend-7 ants also shift their costs as employers onto these workers, resulting in their em-8 ployees improperly bearing the burden of Defendants' portion of Social Security 9 contributions, workers' compensation insurance, and other payroll taxes and costs 10 that an employer is required to pay under relevant law. Defendants' actions harm 11 not only their own employees but also law abiding employers who face unfair 12 competition in the marketplace by Defendants' illegal activity. The Secretary 13 thus brings this case to rectify Defendants' actions with respect to their employ-14 ees, competitors, and the significant public interests at stake.

RECITALS

- 16 1. Plaintiff, R. Alexander Acosta , Secretary of Labor, brings this action to en-17 join Defendants Arizona Logistics, Inc. d/b/a Diligent Delivery Systems, 18 Larry Browne, and Parts Authority Arizona, LLC, from violating provisions 19 of Sections 15(a)(2) and 15(a)(5) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 20 as amended (“FLSA”), 29 U.S.C. §§ 215(a)(2) and 215(a)(5), and to recover
21 amounts owed under the FLSA to employees of Defendants, who, at a min-22 imum, include the individuals as listed by name in the attached Exhibit A.
23 2. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under Section 17 of the FLSA, 29 24 U.S.C. § 217; this Court also has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C.
25 § 1331 (federal question) and § 1345 (United States as Plaintiff).
26 3. Venue is proper because the actions giving rise to this Complaint took place 27 throughout Arizona.

DEFENDANTS ARE EMPLOYERS UNDER THE FLSA

- 1 4. Defendant Arizona Logistics, Inc., also known as DSI Arizona, Inc., and
- 2 doing business as Diligent Delivery Systems (“Diligent Delivery”) is, and
- 3 at all relevant times has been, an Arizona corporation, and is the local division
- 4 of an umbrella group known as Diligent Delivery Systems, a self-de-
- 5 scribed nationwide transportation and logistics service provider serving ap-
- 6 proximately 68 locations nationwide, including cities in California, Texas,
- 7 Michigan, New York, and others. Diligent Delivery maintains its corpo-
- 8 rate headquarters at 333 N. Sam Houston Parkway, East, Suite 1000, Hou-
- 9 ston, Texas, 77060, with a domestic office located at 3800 N. Central Ave.,
- 10 Suite 460, Phoenix, Arizona, 85012, within the jurisdiction of this Court.
- 11 Diligent Delivery also conducts business, including hiring and supervising
- 12 employees, at Defendant Parts Authority’s warehouses and other customer
- 13 locations throughout Arizona, including a warehouse located at 2215 W.
- 14 Fillmore Street, Phoenix, Arizona, 85009, also within the jurisdiction of
- 15 this Court.
- 16 5. Defendant Larry Browne owns and controls Defendant Arizona Logistics,
- 17 Inc., d/b/a Diligent Delivery Systems. He regularly transacts business in
- 18 Phoenix, Arizona through his ownership and control of Diligent Delivery.
- 19 For these reasons, among others, the Court has jurisdiction over Mr.
- 20 Browne.
- 21 6. Defendant Parts Authority Arizona, LLC (“Parts Authority”), is, and at all
- 22 relevant times, has been, an Arizona limited liability company with an of-
- 23 fice and place of business located at 2550 N. Scottsdale Road, Tempe, Ari-
- 24 zona, 85281, and with several other locations in Phoenix, Mesa, Surprise,
- 25 and Peoria, each within the jurisdiction of this Court. Parts Authority de-
- 26 scribes itself as one of the largest distributors of automotive and truck parts
- 27 in the country.
- 28 7. In order to complete its delivery services, Diligent Delivery uses drivers as

- 1 an integral part of its business operations (“Driver Employees”).
- 2 8. From at least April 2012 to the present, Diligent Delivery has required 3 Driver Employees to sign “owner operator agreements” and other docu-4 ments purporting to classify Driver Employees as “independent contrac-5 tors” of Diligent Delivery.
- 6 9. From at least April 2012 to the present, Defendant Parts Authority has en-
7 tered into agreements with Diligent Delivery to have Driver Employees de-8 liver Parts Authority’s automotive and truck parts to customers, such as au-9 tomotive dealerships and repair shops, throughout Arizona.¹ Upon infor-10 mation and belief, Diligent Delivery has also entered into agreements with 11 other companies to perform similar delivery services using the Driver Em-12 ployees.
- 13 10. As a condition of employment, Diligent Delivery requires Driver Employ-14 ees to contact Diligent Delivery supervisors each morning to confirm their 15 shift.
- 16 11. Driver Employees begin their work shift at a warehouse, such as one hous-
17 ing Defendant Parts Authority’s products, to receive delivery assignments 18 and parcels to be delivered that day. Driver Employees then start their des-19 ignated delivery route, returning to the warehouse numerous times per day 20 to receive additional parcels for delivery. Driver Employees are in contact 21 with both Diligent Delivery supervisors and warehouse dispatchers 22 throughout the day to take directives and receive guidance should delivery 23 or scheduling issues arise.
- 24 12. As a condition of employment, Diligent Delivery designates a monthly pay
- 25
- 26

27 ¹ Upon information and belief, Parts Authority separately employs its own drivers, 28 who are classified as Parts Authority employees. These drivers are not presently included in the instant action.

1 rate for Driver Employees regardless of hours worked. Driver Employees 2 are paid by Diligent Delivery headquarters in Houston, Texas, based off of 3 delivery invoices maintained by Parts Authority and other clients who use 4 Diligent Delivery services.

5 13. As a condition of employment, Diligent Delivery requires Driver Employ-6 ees to incur costs including, but not limited to: maintaining insurance on 7 personal vehicles which are used to complete deliveries for Diligent Deliv-8 ery; paying for fuel spent to complete these deliveries; paying for multiple 9 Diligent Delivery uniforms; and incurring a daily “administrative fee” pay-10 able to Diligent Delivery.

11 14. At all relevant times, Defendant Browne has been acting directly and indi-
12 rectly in the interest of the Diligent Delivery in relation to its employees.
13 He operates and controls Diligent Delivery; established the employment 14 structure designed to treat Driver Employees as independent contractors; 15 establishes and enforces the policies that set Driver Employees’ wages, 16 hours, and working conditions, including the necessary terms in the “owner 17 operator agreements” to which all Driver Employees must agree as a condi-18 tion of employment; and oversees operations. Mr. Browne is, therefore, an 19 employer within the meaning of FLSA section 3(d), 29 U.S.C. § 203(d).

20 15. Browne controls the relationship between Diligent Delivery and Driver 21 Employees and caused the FLSA violations in this case. For instance, 22 among other things, Browne is the 100% owner of Diligent and over many 23 years created the business model of improperly characterizing Drivers as 24 “independent contractors.” The model improperly shifts Diligent Deliv-25 ery’s costs as an employer to Driver Employees, resulting in Driver Em-26 ployees improperly bearing the burden of Defendants’ portion of payroll 27 taxes, workers compensation insurance, vehicle insurance, and vehicle ex-28 penses, among other costs. This cost shifting causes Driver Employees to 1 earn as little as less than $1 per hour.

2 16. Browne maintains ultimate authority and control over Diligent Delivery's 3 Arizona operations and business decisions. For example, among other 4 things, he approves the terms of each contract signed with Arizona clients.

5 Browne has also negotiated and signed some client contracts which in-6 cluded a driver code of conduct setting out the rules for Driver Employees 7 to follow. Browne maintains the power to hire and fire Arizona employees, 8 including Drivers, and determines Client and Driver rates.

9 17. Defendants, acting as agents for one another, performed all aspects and du-10 ties of employment. Defendants, individually and jointly, serving as agents 11 for one another, controlled the material aspects of the employment relation-12 ship with Driver Employees including: hiring, firing, setting work sched-13 ules, assigning work, assigning Driver Employees to work locations, and 14 preparing and maintaining pay records.

15 18. Defendants designed and maintained an employment structure with each 16 entity serving the interests of and/or acting as an agent for the other.
17 Through their actions, Defendants actively sought to confuse Driver Em-18 ployees and conceal from them the basic facts concerning their status and 19 rights as employees, including the protections guaranteed by the FLSA.

20 19. By misclassifying Driver Employees as independent contractors, Defend-21 ants shifted their costs as employers onto the Driver Employees. The re-22 sulting costs – of the employer's share of Social Security contributions, 23 workers' compensation insurance, uniforms, fuel, among others – consti-24 tute illegal deductions from the Driver Employees' wages.

25 20. Through these actions, Defendants were depriving, interfering, and impeding 26 the ability of the Driver Employees, and derivatively, of the Secretary 27 of Labor, to detect the basic circumstances of their employment, and dis-28 couraging, punishing, and coercing them from exercising their rights as 1 employees under the FLSA.

2 21. The economic realities of the employment relationship between Driver Em-
3 ployees and Defendants establish that each Defendant is an “employer”
4 within the meaning of FLSA Section 3(d), 29 U.S.C. 203(d), and together
5 served as a team of co-employers. As such, Defendants are liable for all 6 back wages due to the Driver Employees for the relevant time period of at 7 least April 2012 to the present.

9 DEFENDANTS’ EMPLOYEES ARE ENTITLED TO THE WAGES
10 AND PROTECTIONS OF THE FLSA

11 22. Defendants’ activities constitute and at all relevant times have constituted 12 related activities performed through unified operation or common control for 13 a common business purpose, and are and at all relevant times have been an 14 “enterprise” as defined in FLSA § 3(r), 29 U.S.C. § 203(r).
15 23. Driver Employees were or are engaged in commerce and/or in handling or 16 working on goods that had been moved in commerce, as they regularly han-17 dle goods that had or have been shipped from places outside of the state of 18 Arizona. Defendants’ enterprise has, and at all relevant times has had, an 19 annual gross volume of sales made or business done of no less than 20 $500,000.00, and said enterprise constitutes, and at all relevant times has 21 constituted, an “enterprise engaged in commerce or in the production of 22 goods for commerce” as defined by FLSA § 3(s), 29 U.S.C. § 203(s). As 23 such, Driver Employees are covered by the FLSA, including its wage, 24 recordkeeping, and anti-discrimination provisions.

25 DEFENDANTS VIOLATED THE FLSA

26 24. Defendants have willfully and repeatedly violated the provisions of Sec-27 tions 6 and 15(a)(2) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 206 and § 215(a)(2), when 28 the illegal deductions made from the wages of Driver Employees for the

- 1 employers' share of Social Security contributions and other costs reduced
2 Driver Employees' hourly rate below the federal minimum wage of $7.25 3 per hour.
- 4 25. Defendants have willfully and repeatedly violated the provisions of Sec-
5 tions 7 and 15(a)(2) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 207 and § 215(a)(2), because 6 they failed to pay the Driver Employees at a rate of time and one half the 7 employees' regular rate for hours worked over 40 in a workweek. Driver 8 Employees routinely worked over 40 hours per week, were paid a flat rate, 9 and were not paid an overtime premium for excess hours worked over 40 in 10 a workweek.
- 11 26. Defendants have willfully and repeatedly violated the provisions of Sec-
12 tions 11(c) and 15(a)(5) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 211(c) and § 215(a)(5), 13 by failing to maintain, keep, and preserve records of employees and of the 14 wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment main-15 tained, as prescribed by the regulations promulgated by the Secretary pur-16 suant to the authority granted in the FLSA and published in the Federal 17 Register and known as Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 516.
18 Defendants misclassified Driver Employees as independent contractors and 19 failed to keep time records that would show adequately and accurately, 20 among other things, the hours worked by Driver Employees each workday, 21 the total hours worked each workweek, the deductions from their wages for 22 the employers' costs and the amount paid, thereby depriving, interfering 23 and impeding the ability of Driver Employees, and derivatively, of the Sec-24 retary of Labor, to detect, identify and have notice of the underpayment of 25 minimum and overtime wages due under the FLSA.
- 26 27. Defendants have willfully and repeatedly violated the provisions of Sec-
27 tion 15(a)(3) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. § 215(a)(3), by depriving, interfering 28

1 and impeding the ability of Driver Employees, and derivatively, of the Sec-2 retary of Labor, to detect the basic circumstances of their employment and 3 of their rights as employees under the FLSA, including the right to notify 4 the Secretary of Labor of FLSA violations.

5 28. By the actions described above, Defendants have repeatedly and willfully
6 violated, and are violating, the above-described provisions of the FLSA 7 during the relevant statutory period.

9 WHEREFORE, cause having been shown, the Secretary prays for a judg-10 ment against Defendants as follows:

11 A. (i) For an Order pursuant to Section 17 of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C.
12 § 217, permanently enjoining and restraining Defendants, their officers, 13 agents, servants, and employees, and those persons in active concert or par-14 ticipation with them, from prospectively violating the provisions of Sections 15(a)(2), 15(a)(3), and 15(a)(5) of the FLSA, 29 U.S.C. §§ 215(a)(2), 16 215(a)(3), and 215(a)(5); and

17 B. For an Order

18 (i) pursuant to FLSA § 16(c), 29 U.S.C. § 216(c), finding Defendants 19 liable for any unpaid minimum wage and overtime compensation during 20 the relevant time period that may be found by the Court to be due under the 21 FLSA, plus an additional amount as and for liquidated damages, equal to 22 any back wages found to have accrued under the FLSA, to present and for-23 mer employees of Defendants, including, at a minimum, the persons listed 24 by name on the attached Exhibit A; or

25 (ii) in any instances where liquidated damages are not awarded 26 herein, restraining, pursuant to FLSA § 17, 29 U.S.C. § 217, Defendants, 27 their officers, agents, servants and employees and all persons in active con-28 cert or participation with them, from continuing to withhold the payment of any unpaid minimum wage and overtime compensation that may be found by this Court to have accrued under the FLSA to present and former employees of Defendants, including, at a minimum, the persons listed by name on the attached Exhibit A, plus pre-judgment interest thereon; and,

5 D. Awarding the Secretary of Labor the costs of this action; and,

6 E. Providing such further legal and equitable relief as may be 7 deemed appropriate, including equitable tolling of the applicable three-year 8 statute of limitations to redress interference with, or delayed detection of, 9 the violations of the FLSA by the Secretary due to Defendants' actions to 10 confuse their workers as to their status as employees protected by the 11 FLSA and/or to intimidate or coerce them from exercising their rights and 12 status as an employee, and failure to maintain complete, accurate or full 13 records as required by 29 U.S.C. §§ 211(c) and 215(a)(5) of the FLSA.
