PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. Nike's Flyknit is a game-changing technology. Flyknit resulted from more than a decade of Nike's research and development, and it has been hailed as "the most groundbreaking sneaker innovation in over 40 years."<sup>1</sup> Nike's Flyknit technology provides a novel method of designing and manufacturing shoe uppers, which enables Nike to create footwear with excellent performance, design, and aesthetics—all while reducing materials and waste. An early example of a Nike Flyknit shoe upper is shown below.

2. Nike has taken steps to protect its Flyknit technologies by filing and obtaining patents around the world.

3. Due to the success of Nike's Flyknit, many of Nike's competitors have copied and made unauthorized use of Nike's Flyknit technologies. Nike has enforced its patents against those companies. See, e.g., Nike, Inc. v. PUMA North America, Inc., Case No. 1:18-cv-10875 (D. Mass); Nike, Inc. v. adidas AG et al., Case No. 3:21-cv-01780-YY (D. Oregon); In re: Certain Knitted Footwear, Inv. No. 337-TA-1289

(U.S.I.T.C.); Nike, Inc. v. lululemon usa inc., Case No. 1:23-cv-00771-JPO (S.D.N.Y.).

4. Skechers has likewise used Nike's Flyknit technologies without authorization. This is not the first time Nike has enforced its patents against Skechers. See Nike, Inc. v. Skechers USA, Inc., No. 16-cv-00007 (D. Or.); Nike, Inc. v. Skechers USA, Inc., No. 17-cv-08509 (C.D. Cal.); Nike, Inc. v. Skechers USA, Inc., No. 19-cv-08418 (C.D. Cal.); Nike, Inc. v. Skechers USA, Inc., No. 19-cv-09230 (C.D. Cal.)

5. Nike brings this lawsuit to once again stop Skechers' infringement of Nike's intellectual property and protect Nike's hard-earned innovations in Flyknit technology.

17. On information and belief, Skechers sells the Infringing Products directly to customers in the United States, including in this District.

18. Skechers has infringed, and continues to infringe, the Asserted Patents by making, using, selling, offering to sell, and/or importing the Infringing Products in this District and elsewhere in the United States without the consent or authorization of Nike.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Patent Infringement Under 35 U.S.C. § 271 of U.S. Patent No. 8,266,749)

19. Nike re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1–18 of this Complaint.

20. U.S. Patent No. 8,266,749 (the “’749 patent”) is generally directed to a method of manufacturing an article of footwear with a textile element, where the textile element is simultaneously knitted with a surrounding textile structure, and the textile element has a knitted texture that differs from the knitted texture in the surrounding textile structure.

21. For example, claim 1 of the ’749 patent recites:

A method of manufacturing an article of footwear, the method comprising:

simultaneously knitting a textile element with a surrounding textile structure, the knitted textile element having at least one knitted texture that differs from a knitted texture in the surrounding knitted textile structure;

removing the knitted textile element from the surrounding knitted textile structure;

incorporating the knitted textile element into the article of footwear.

22. On information and belief, Skechers directly infringes at least claim 1 of the ’749 patent under at least § 271(g). For example, Skechers imports into the United States at least the Martha Stewart x Skechers Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3, Slip-ins: Max Cushioning AF – Fluidity, Slip-ins: Arch Fit Vista – Aspiration, Slip-ins: Arch Fit Glide-Step, Slip-ins: Cessnock – Gwynedd, Slip-ins: Delson 3.0 Lavell, Slip-ins: Glide-Step Swift – Prose, Slip-Ins: GO WALK 6 – Easy On, Slip-ins: GO WALK 6

1 - Fabulous View, Slip-ins: GO WALK 6 – Lovely Day, Slip-Ins: GO WALK 6 – 2 Valentina, Slip-Ins: GO WALK Arch Fit – Simplicity, Slip-ins: Max Cushioning – 3 Advantageous, Slip-ins: Max Cushioning – Smooth, Slip-ins: On-the-Go Swift – 4 Astounding, Slip-ins: RF Bogdin – Arlett, Slip-ins: RF Reggae Fest 2.0, Slip-ins: RF:
 5 Ingram – Brackett, Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 – Brilliant, Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 – 6 Colory Wild, Slip-Ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 – Cozy Streak, Slip-Ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 – Finnik, 7 Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 – Fresh Time, Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 – New Arc, Slip-ins:
 8 Ultra Flex 3.0 - Pastel Clouds, Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 - Shining Glitz, Slip-ins: Ultra 9 Flex 3.0 – Smooth Step, Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3.0 - Sparkled Stones, Slip-ins Work:
 10 Ultra Flex 3.0 SR, and Slip-ins: Virtue – Divinity styles (the “’749 Infringing 11 Products”), which, as shown in greater detail in Exhibit 7 attached hereto, were 12 manufactured using a process that satisfies each and every limitation of claim 1 13 because, on information and belief, Skechers manufactures (or has manufactured for 14 it) those shoes by simultaneously knitting a textile element with a surrounding textile 15 structure, the knitted textile element having at least one knitted texture that differs 16 from a knitted texture in the surrounding knitted textile structure; removing the 17 knitted textile element from the surrounding knitted textile structure; and 18 incorporating the knitted textile element into the article of footwear.

19 23. On information and belief, the ’749 Infringing Products are not materially 20 changed by subsequent processes after importation, nor do those products become a 21 trivial or nonessential component of another product after importation.

22 24. On information and belief, Skechers has actively induced and is actively 23 inducing infringement of at least claim 1 of the ’749 patent with specific intent to 24 induce infringement, and/or willful blindness to the possibility that its acts induce 25 infringement, in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b). For example, on information and 26 belief, Skechers encourages and induces its third-party manufacturer(s) to 27 manufacture or import the ’749 Infringing Products. As a further example, on 28

1 information and belief, Skechers also encourages and induces its authorized dealers,
 2 wholesale customers, and distributor customers to import the '749 Infringing
 3 Products.

4 25. Nike has suffered, and continues to suffer, economic harm as a result of 5 Skechers' infringing activities in an amount to be proven at trial.

6 26. Skechers' activities have caused and will continue to cause Nike
 7 irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law unless this Court
 8 enjoins Skechers' infringing activities under 35 U.S.C. § 283.

9 27. On information and belief, Skechers' infringement of the '749 patent will 10 continue unless enjoined by this Court.

11 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
 12 (Patent Infringement Under 35 U.S.C. § 271 of U.S. Patent No. 9,060,562)

13 28. Nike re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in 14 paragraphs 1–27 of this Complaint.

15 29. U.S. Patent No. 9,060,562 (the "'562 patent") is generally directed to a 16 method of manufacturing a knitted component for an article of footwear, the method 17 including knitting an upper with an integral knit tongue during a knitting process, 18 where the integral knit tongue extends through a throat area of the knitted component.

19 30. For example, claim 1 of the '562 patent recites:

20 A method of manufacturing a knitted component for an article of 21 footwear, the method comprising:

22 knitting a portion of the knitted component defining an upper 23 with a knitting machine, the upper including a portion of at 24 least one of an exterior surface of the knitted component and 25 an opposite interior surface of the knitted component; and 26 knitting an integral knit tongue that is of unitary knit 27 construction with the upper with the knitting machine, the 28 integral knit tongue extending through a throat area of the knitted component; and wherein the integral knit tongue is joined by knitting with the knitting machine to: (1) a forward portion of the throat area, and (2) at least along a portion of both of a lateral side and a medial side of the throat area of the knitted component extending through a portion of a length of the throat area in a

1 longitudinal direction from the forward portion to an ankle 2 opening of the upper.

3 31. On information and belief, Skechers directly infringes at least claim 1 of 4 the '562 patent under at least § 271(g). For example, Skechers imports into the United 5 States at least the Skechers Slip-ins: Max Cushioning AF – Fluidity, Relaxed Fit: 6 D'Lux Walker - Let it Glow, Skechers Slip-ins: Virtue – Divinity, Ultra Flex 3.0 - Big 7 Plan, Arch Fit Refine – Freesia, Dynamight 2.0 - Pounce Back, Cordova Classic - 8 Sparkling Dust, Virtue – Twilight, Ultra Flex 3.0 - Let's Dance, and Martha Stewart 9 x Skechers Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3 styles (the “'562 Infringing Products”), which, as 10 shown in greater detail in Exhibit 8 attached hereto, are manufactured using a process 11 that satisfies each and every limitation of claim 1 because, on information and belief, 12 Skechers manufactures (or has manufactured for it) those shoes by knitting a portion 13 of the knitted component defining an upper with a knitting machine, the upper 14 including a portion of at least one of an exterior surface of the knitted component and 15 an opposite interior surface of the knitted component, and knitting an integral knit 16 tongue that is of unitary knit construction with the upper with the knitting machine, 17 the integral knit tongue extending through a throat area of the knitted component, 18 wherein the integral knit tongue is joined by knitting with the knitting machine to:
19 (1) a forward portion of the throat area, and (2) at least along a portion of both of a 20 lateral side and a medial side of the throat area of the knitted component extending 21 through a portion of a length of the throat area in a longitudinal direction from the 22 forward portion to an ankle opening of the upper.

23 32. On information and belief, the '562 Infringing Products are not materially 24 changed by subsequent processes after importation, nor do these products become a 25 trivial or nonessential component of another product after importation.

26 33. On information and belief, Skechers has actively induced and is actively 27 inducing infringement of at least claim 1 of the '562 patent with specific intent to 28 induce infringement, and/or willful blindness to the possibility that its acts induce

1 infringement, in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b). For example, on information and 2 belief, Skechers encourages and induces its third-party manufacturer(s) to 3 manufacture or import the '562 Infringing Products. As a further example, on 4 information and belief, Skechers also encourages and induces its authorized dealers,
 5 wholesale customers, and distributor customers to import the '562 Infringing
 6 Products.

7 34. Nike has suffered, and continues to suffer, economic harm as a result of 8 Skechers' infringing activities in an amount to be proven at trial.

9 35. Skechers' activities have caused and will continue to cause Nike
 10 irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law unless this Court 11 enjoins Skechers' infringing activities under 35 U.S.C. § 283.

12 36. On information and belief, Skechers' infringement of the '562 patent will 13 continue unless enjoined by this Court.

14 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
 15 (Patent Infringement Under 35 U.S.C. § 271 of U.S. Patent No. 9,510,636)

16 37. Nike re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in 17 paragraphs 1–36 of this Complaint.

18 38. U.S. Patent No. 9,510,636 (the "'636 patent") is generally directed to an 19 article of footwear that incorporates a knitted component having an upper and an 20 integral knit tongue, where the integral knit tongue is formed of unitary knit 21 construction with the upper and extends through the throat area of the knitted 22 component.

23 39. For example, claim 1 of the '636 patent recites:

24 An article of footwear having an upper and a sole structure 25 secured to the upper, the article of footwear incorporating a knitted component comprising:

26 a portion of the knitted component defining the upper, 27 the upper including a portion of at least one of an exterior surface of the knitted component and an 28 opposite interior surface of the knitted component,

1 the interior surface defining a void for receiving a 2 foot; and 3 an integral knit tongue formed with the upper and 4 extending through a throat area of the knitted 5 component; and 6 at least one raised element extending a height above the 7 exterior surface of the knitted component, 8 wherein the integral knit tongue is joined to a forward 9 portion of the throat area and at least along a portion 10 of a lateral side and a medial side of the throat area 11 of the knitted component extending from the 12 forward portion to an ankle opening of the upper.

13 40. On information and belief, Skechers directly infringes at least claim 1 of 14 the '636 patent under at least § 271(a) by making, using, offering for sale, and/or 15 selling footwear products that infringe one or more claims of the '636 patent, literally 16 or under the doctrine of equivalents. For example, Skechers sells at least the Skechers 17 Relaxed Fit: D'Lux Walker - Let it Glow, Skechers Slip-ins: Virtue – Divinity, Ultra 18 Flex 3.0 - Big Plan, Arch Fit Refine – Freesia, Dynamight 2.0 - Pounce Back, Cordova 19 Classic - Sparkling Dust, Virtue – Twilight, Ultra Flex 3.0 - Let's Dance, and Martha 20 Stewart x Skechers Slip-ins: Ultra Flex 3 styles (the "'636 Infringing Products"), 21 which, as shown in greater detail in Exhibit 9 attached hereto, includes, on 22 information and belief, an article of footwear having an upper and a sole structure 23 secured to the upper, the article of footwear incorporating a knitted component 24 comprising a portion of the knitted component defining the upper, the upper including 25 a portion of at least one of an exterior surface of the knitted component and an 26 opposite interior surface of the knitted component, the interior surface defining a void 27 for receiving a foot, and an integral knit tongue formed with the upper and extending 28 through a throat area of the knitted component, and at least one raised element extending a height above the exterior surface of the knitted component, wherein the integral knit tongue is joined to a forward portion of the throat area and at least along

1 a portion of a lateral side and a medial side of the throat area of the knitted component 2 extending from the forward portion to an ankle opening of the upper.

3 41. On information and belief, Skechers has actively induced and is actively 4 inducing infringement of at least claim 1 of the '636 patent with specific intent to 5 induce infringement, and/or willful blindness to the possibility that its acts induce 6 infringement, in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b). For example, on information and 7 belief, Skechers encourages and induces its authorized dealers, wholesale customers, 8 and distributor customers to sell, offer to sell, or import the '636 Infringing Products.

9 42. Nike has suffered, and continues to suffer, economic harm as a result of 10 Skechers' infringing activities in an amount to be proven at trial.

11 43. Skechers' activities have caused and will continue to cause Nike
12 irreparable injury for which there is no adequate remedy at law unless this Court 13 enjoins Skechers' infringing activities under 35 U.S.C. § 283.

14 44. On information and belief, Skechers' infringement of the '636 patent will 15 continue unless enjoined by this Court.

16 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
17 (Patent Infringement Under 35 U.S.C. § 271 of U.S. Patent No. 9,730,484)

18 45. Nike re-alleges and incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in 19 paragraphs 1–44 of this Complaint.

20 46. U.S. Patent No. 9,730,484 (the "'484 patent") is generally directed to an 21 article of footwear having a flat knit upper of a desired three-dimensional shape.

22 47. For example, claim 1 of the '484 patent recites:

23 An article of footwear comprising an upper including a 24 flat-knitted element formed from at least one yarn 25
26
27 28

1 mechanically manipulated in a flat-knitting process, the flat-2 knitted element including a first layer having:

- 3 a central portion having a domed, three-dimensional 4 structure configured for extending over the top of a 5 foot;
- 6 a first side portion being formed of unitary construction 7 with the central portion and extending from a first 8 side of the central portion; and
- 9 a second side portion being formed of unitary 10 construction with the central portion and extending 11 from a second side opposite the first side of the 12 central portion, the domed, three-dimensional 13 structure shaped to extend above the plane of the 14 first side portion and the second side portion when 15 the flat-knitted element is in a flattened 16 configuration.

17 48. On information and belief, Skechers directly infringes at least claim 1 of 18 the '484 patent under at least § 271(a) by making, using, offering for sale, and/or 19 selling footwear products that infringe one or more claims of the '484 patent, literally 20 or under the doctrine of equivalents. For example, Skechers sells at least the Arch Fit 21 Glide-Step, Arch Fit Glide-Step – Dazzling Step, Vapor Foam - True Classic, Ultra
